DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, lines 7, 9, 11-12, 13, 14, 18, and 19, claim 2, lines 3 and 10, claim 3, line 3, claim 5, lines 4 and 5, claim 6, lines 5, 17, 21 and 24, and claim 7, line 6, the terms indicate possibility or probability, such as "can be", "may be", "may also be", "may also have" and "may have" are indefinite claim languages because they do not positively set forth the claimed invention. Such terms must be replaced with assertive terms such as "is", "are", "have", or "has".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

4. Claims 10-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

In each of the preambles of claims 10-15, a method is being claimed; however, the claim body seems to be an apparatus. Since a single claim cannot overlap two statutory subject matters, claims 10-15, being not fall into any one of the statutory subject matters, are considered non-statutory subject matter.

5. Claim 16 provides for the use of the phase locked loop of claim 1, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 1-9 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Elliott et al. (6,826,247) shows a digital phase locked loop.
